CLASS 35 UPDATE: ECONOMICS DAY

On December 4, Class 35 hit the ground running for an Economics Day that was nothing short of a resounding success!

The day offered an incredible "backstage pass" to the engines driving our local economy, featuring fascinating tours of our local airport, the master craftsmanship at Willis Custom Yachts, and the global operations of International Training SDI. The group gained invaluable regional insights through a powerhouse presentation by Bill Fruth of Policom, which perfectly complemented the deeply personal and ever-memorable "WHY" exercise led by Tim Kinane. This deep dive into purpose and perspective left the class feeling inspired and more connected than ever.

A massive thank you goes to Eric Kiehn for his leadership in overseeing the creation and flawless organization of the day. We are also immensely grateful to our dedicated volunteers and WHY Facilitators who brought the day's mission to life: Sarah Baker, Brian Carney, Cindy Groover, Kelly Guttveg, Leslie Judd, Stacy Little, Kate Muscarella, Brian Powers, Cheree Ramirez, Samantha Suffich, Joanna Mangan, Wayne Filowitz, Chris Vaccaro, Jennifer Carter, Jimmy Collins, and Pat Nolan. From the tarmac to the yacht basin, Class 35 absolutely enjoyed every moment of this high-impact day!

ALUMNI SUPPORTING THE COMMUNITY

Meet the Board Member!

JOANNA GREENE, CLASS 32

Human Services Manager

Martin County Board of County Commissioners

Hometown: Macon, GA

Current City: Port St. Lucie

How long have you lived in the area? 30 years. My husband and I moved here from New Orleans for his job, and we've raised our family here. I love being in a place where we have so many significant memories, all over the Treasure Coast!

Fun Facts

- Because both of my parents were educators, I swore I would never teach—and was an instructor at IRSC for twelve solid years!
- I am on the boards of Martin County Healthy Start, Martin County Police Athletic League, Florida Association of Drug Court Professionals, and the Circuit 19 Juvenile Justice Advisory Board. I volunteer with Junior League of Martin County as Membership Chair and with The Traveling Youth.

Tell us about your current organization and your position.

I work in Human Services overseeing the case management for Drug Court, Mental Health Court, our Juvenile REACH and Civil Citation programs, the Martin County Drug Lab, and the Martin County Community Action Coalition. I love the variety, and I love the opportunity to make people's lives better in tangible ways. We have an incredible staff and I genuinely enjoy coming to work every day. My co-workers are such great people!

What was your favorite part about doing LEADERShip Martin County?

I learned so much about the county! I was so impressed by the areas we visited; absolutely loved the field trips and loved my class. What a fun bunch of people we had!

What does "leadership" mean to you? I think leadership is context-dependent, and it can look very different from what we might think. I also think that "to whom much is given, much is required"; leadership of any type is an important responsibility to those we serve.

PHILÓTIMO

Wishing You Harmony, Health and Meaningful Moments for 2026

By Tim Kinane

Philótimo (φιλότιμο) is a core Greek concept meaning "love of honor," but it's a complex virtue encompassing deep-seated values like duty, family loyalty, dignity, generosity, and doing what's right without expecting reward, driving people to act honorably for their community and self-respect. It's about serving others out of inner conviction, going beyond mere obligation, and embodying traits like hospitality, respect, and selflessness.

Watch an artistic interpretation of Philótimo by French-Canadian pianist and composer, Alain Lefèvre.

FINDING THE CANDY CANE MOMENTS

Everyday Leadership with Tim Kinane

LEADERShip Alumni closed out 2025 with inspiration from our resident leadership guru Tim Kinane.

During a lunch and learn on Dec. 18, Tim challenged us to recognize the “lollipop” (or candy cane!) moments that changed us for the better.

Leadership doesn't have to be about grand achievements. Little moments of connection can have the biggest impact. And most importantly, sharing gratitude with the people who delivered those moments creates a momentum of positivity much bigger than ourselves. The exercise was a great - and timely - reminder that the best gifts don't have to come wrapped in a bow.

COMMUNITY CORNER

City of Stuart Recreation Division

by Jessica Tharp, Class 32

The City of Stuart's Recreation Division continues to be a vibrant heartbeat of our community—bringing neighbors together, inspiring healthy lifestyles, and creating meaningful memories for residents of all ages.

Whether you're looking to get active, learn something new, or simply spend time outdoors, our parks and community center offer year-round programs designed with everyone in mind.

From early-morning walkers to families enjoying weekend picnics, our parks serve as welcoming spaces for play, relaxation, and connection. Seasonal sports leagues, youth clinics, adult fitness classes, and outdoor family events fill our green spaces each week. Our team works hard to maintain clean, safe, and fun environments where community life can truly flourish.

Inside the 10th Street Community Center, you'll find a lively schedule of programs for all ages. Children can explore creativity through arts and crafts and pre-school sports programs. Teens and adults enjoy workshops, wellness classes, and social gatherings, while seniors have access to daily meals, activities that support health, companionship, and continued learning. Our facility is also home to special events throughout the year, from holiday celebrations to cultural gatherings.

The Recreation Division hosts a wide array of community events that have become beloved Stuart traditions. These include Spooktacular Night at the Park, seasonal festivals, health and wellness expos, and family-friendly celebrations in our parks. Each event is designed to welcome everyone—long-time residents, new neighbors, and visitors alike.

At the heart of every program is a simple goal: to help our city thrive by encouraging connection, wellness, and engagement. We believe recreation should be accessible to everyone, and we are continually expanding our offerings to meet the needs of our growing community. We invite you to explore what the Stuart Recreation Division has to offer.

Come join the fun—and let's keep Stuart active, vibrant, and connected!
